Fond Farewell

Mattapoisett Library Director to Depart

By Kenneth J. Souza

When Library Director Sue Tweedy first took on her role at the Mattapoisett Public Library in 1988, things were quite different for the small-town facility. With the dawn of the computer age, the once-standard card catalog was being gradually replaced by electronic methods of information retrieval ... and more and more space was being allocated for computer terminals for patron use.

"There have been a lot of changes over the last fourteen years," Ms. Tweedy said recently. "When I started here, we were not automated ... we were just starting to use the SEAL (South Eastern Automated Libraries) system."

Now that Ms. Tweedy has helped usher in a new era of technological advancements for the Mattapoisett Public Library, she is regrettably moving on and will be relocating with her husband to Florida. Though she can boast many accomplishments with pride during her fourteen-year-tenure, Ms. Tweedy admitted her departure will be bittersweet — especially with the pending library renovation and expansion project on the horizon.

"Now that we're in the planning stages, I'll miss seeing the (future expansion)," she said.

Having worked in the library field since 1965 — when she served as a school librarian in Frederick, MD through 1973 — Ms. Tweedy later moved on to a position as a children's librarian in Norton, MA from 1977 to 1984. In 1986, she came to the Mattapoisett Library as children's librarian and then took over as the Library Director two years later.

A resident of Dartmouth since 1984, Ms. Tweedy said her relationship with Mattapoisett has been a "good fit" over the years.

"I really like the people here (in Mattapoisett)," Ms. Tweedy said. "They're all very friendly ... and I like the turnover in the summer, when I get to see different faces."

Among the major changes during Ms. Tweedy's stewardship: an increase in staff to three full-time and four part-time positions, allowing a hike from 28 to 34 operating hours per week; extended hours on Thursday nights until 8:00 pm; and the aforementioned electronic advancements both for cataloging and Internet access.

Ms. Tweedy said her newly-selected successor, Judith Wallace of Mattapoisett, will have many challenges ahead of her, not least of which will be the expansion and renovation of the library, slated to be completed in 2004 to coincide with the library's one-hundredth anniversary.

"(Ms. Wallace) is coming to us from the Harwich library," Ms. Tweedy said. "She'll have the building program to oversee ... and more technology changes. On July 1, we're changing again from the SEAL network to SAILS — SEAL and ABLE merged into one large network. The remote (online) access will probably be better ... it should be simpler."

Although she's not sure what she'll be doing after relocating to Florida, she said she'll likely seek out something library-related. And she said she'll keep her eye on the future Mattapoisett Library expansion.

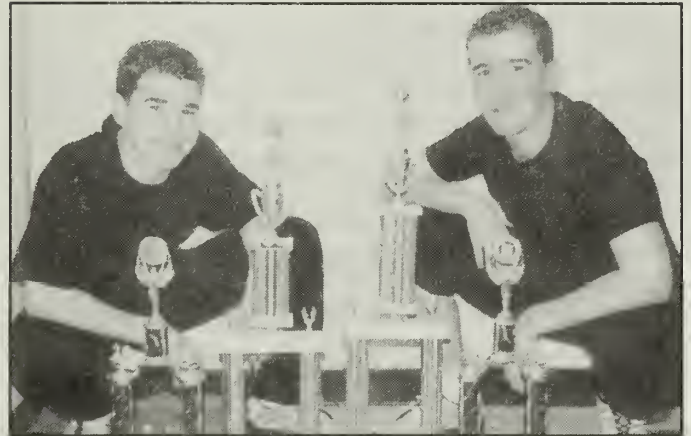

"I've already asked the architects if they have (Internet) homepages so I can watch the progress," she said. "I'm sure I'll be back to visit once it's done."

A farewell reception for Sue Tweedy, Director of the Mattapoisett Public Library, will be held from 3:00 to 5:00 pm on Friday, June 23 at the library. The public is invited to attend.

The Vaughn brothers studied jazz, tap, ballet, musical theater, and acrobatics at studios in Missouri, Iowa, Kentucky, and Ohio. They have been fortunate enough to have opportunities to study with Philadelphia choreographer Stepp Stewart of Dynamite National Talent, Troy McCarthy and David Strobe of the Cleveland-San Jose Ballet, and many master teachers at dance conventions throughout the midwest. According to Stepp Stewart, "They are easy to work with because experiences with many different teachers have given them open minds and creative flexibility."

In 1998, the Medinas moved to Mattapoisett and joined the Medina Competition Team. As members of the team, these young men have been awarded numerous Platinum and Gold Medals for solo, duo, and group performances. In February, Gary was awarded the title of "Teen Mr. Dance" at the Kids' Artistic Revue competition held in Brockton, MA. At the same competition, Steve was awarded the title of "Junior Mr. Dance." Most recently, they were awarded the titles of "Mr. Headliner" and "Teen Mr. Headliner" at the Headliners competition held in East

Providence, RI.

"They get better every day," said teachers Kay Medina and Tracey Talbot who see bright futures for these two dedicated students. Currently, Ms. Medina and Ms. Talbot are preparing Gary and Steve, along with a 40-member team, for competitions in Worcester and Philadelphia. The teachers, will also accompany Steve to Dallas where, with partner Tabettha Lorina-Baker of Middleboro, he will audition for the Bobby Ball Talent Agency of Los Angeles. With continued hard work and the guidance, encouragement, and support of teachers and students, these two local gentlemen have very bright futures.

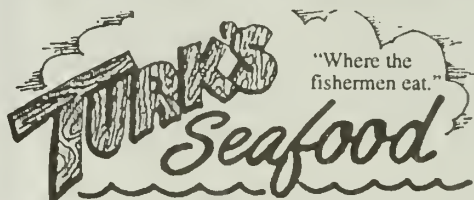

Rochester Annual Town Meeting

June 12, 2000

The Annual Town Meeting for the Town of Rochester was continued on Monday, June 12, 2000 at 7:30 pm at Old Colony Regional Vocational Technical High School. Noting the presence of an estimated 135 voters, Town Moderator Greenwood Hartley called the meeting to order to consider the remaining six articles on a thirty-article warrant which began the previous week. Despite the small number of articles remaining, discussion and debate was more prevalent during the second session of Town Meeting, with several big-money items on the agenda.

Under ARTICLE 25, voters were asked to amend the Town of Rochester's By-Laws to establish allowances for so-called "Common Driveways," which are defined as a private way extending from a public way which serves as common vehicular access to more than two but not more than six residential lots. The proposed language included several safety issues relative to such a configuration and would allow the use of Common Driveways by Special Permit and Plans as approved by the Planning Board. The article and proposed by-law were approved by Town Meeting voters.

Voters were not as eager to allocate a proposed $2 million to fund renovations and expansion to the Rochester Town Hall under ARTICLE 26, however. The submitted article — which would allocate $450,000 out of Free Cash and borrow the remaining $1.55 million for the project — was sharply criticized by many Town Meeting voters. Instead, an amended plan was conceived on Town Meeting floor to allocate $50,000 out of Free Cash to conduct a further study of the project to perhaps have the renovations and expansion done in two separate stages, with the addition built at a later date. Some voters were reluctant to forge ahead knowing that certain preservation restrictions would be placed on the building. As such, the original article was defeated and the newly-amended $50,000 allocation to revisit the project was readily approved with the understanding that the project will have to be re-bid and require another Town Meeting in the fall.

Under ARTICLE 27, voters were asked to allocate a total $600,000 — $150,000 transferred from Free Cash and $450,000 to be borrowed — to fund the construction of a new Town Barn to house Highway Department vehicles and equipment. The new structure will be located on town-owned property on Ryder Road. The article was passed by Town Meeting voters.

Voters were asked to accept an easement from the First Congregational Church of Rochester for purpose of establishing a right of way from the southerly boundary line of land now or formerly of the Town of Rochester through land of said First Congregational Church of Rochester to Rounseville Road under ARTICLE 28. This would allow the described "right of way" (also known as Constitution Way) to be used as a public access adjacent to the town green and also allow the town's Highway Department to repair, upgrade and maintain the 25-foot wide road as needed. The article was readily passed by Town Meeting voters.

Under ARTICLE 29, voters were ask to establish a six-month moratorium on the construction and erection of all telecommunications towers/antennas in excess of 100 feet within the Town of Rochester in order to promulgate a Telecommunication Tower/Antenna By-Law for the town. Having previously been the subject of a recent public hearing at which residents provided ample input, the article was passed by Town Meeting voters.

Lastly, under ARTICLE 30, voters agreed to transfer another $465,000 out of Free Cash into the town's Stabilization Fund, thereby bringing the current total in that account to over $1.7 million.

Although there weren't any articles related to the pending Police/Communications Building project on the warrant, voters did discuss the matter at length during the second session of Town Meeting. Closed general contractor bids are due for the project on Thursday, June 22, after which the final costs will be known. As such, a July 17 Special Town Meeting has been scheduled to consider any additional funding needed for the project.

There being no further warrant articles to consider, the Annual Town Meeting for the Town of Rochester was adjourned for the evening.

Tobacco smoke contains over 50 known cancer-causing compounds. In fact, the Journal of the American Medical Association (1/98) estimates that 53,000 deaths occur nationally each year as a result of environmental tobacco smoke (ETS). ETS, like asbestos, is a Class-A carcinogen, containing over 50 compounds that are known to cause cancer. Therefore, there is no safe level of exposure to environmental tobacco smoke.

Currently, there is medical evidence of a causal relationship between environmental tobacco smoke and:

- Asthma in children;
- Lower respiratory tract infections and middle ear infections in infants and children;
- Cancer of the lung and nasal sinus;
- Sudden Infant Death Syndrome (SIDS);
- Heart disease.

For these reasons, the American Cancer Society strongly supports the creation of 100 percent smoke-free public places, including restaurants. I urge the residents of Mattapoisett to encourage the Board of Health to pass 100 percent smoke-free restaurant regulations. With the support of its citizens, Mattapoisett can join the dozens of other Massachusetts communities that are standing up for the right to breathe clean, safe air in public places.

Sincerely,

Kathy Lena

Sketching By The Sea

The New Bedford Art Museum is offering a refreshing adult art program designed to meet the needs of every aspiring artist. Participants and instructors will meet at various seaside locations along the SouthCoast, working in mediums with which they feel most comfortable. This year's locations will range from Sippican Harbor, Mattapoisett Harbor and Padanaram Harbor to the very beautiful Sakonnet Point in Little Compton, RI. The instructors combine years of teaching and professional experience to offer participants the opportunity to enhance their drawing, sketching and painting skills. They are Andy Anderson, David Baggarly, Jane Bregoli, and Helen Sturges Nadler.

Classes begin Friday, June 30 and run throughout the summer every Friday, 9:00 am to 12:00 noon. The last class will be a special trip to Cuttyhunk Island on Wednesday, August 30. For more information or to register, please call the New Bedford Art Museum at (508) 961-3072.

Buzzards Bay Area is an affiliate of Habitat for Humanity, an international ecumenical organization dedicated to providing simple decent housing for all. The first house in Onset is now home of a family of four. They plan to build a second home this fall on a rural lot in the town of Wareham.

Grade 12, in the Old Rochester School District. To participate in the study, League membership is not required, and the study committee is particularly eager to include people from all three towns.

At present, the regional senior and junior high schools are governed by a school committee of members elected from each of the three towns. Local schools (pre-K through Grade 6) are governed by locally-elected committees. The grade schools and the secondary schools employ the same superintendent, and share other personnel including the district-wide Special Education Director and Cafeteria Manager. All grade schools have similar curriculum goals and standards, intended to prepare students from all three towns to begin seventh grade together on an equal footing.

The League's study will include consideration of what the effect of full regionalization might mean on teacher contracts, assignment of students, school transportation, state school aid, the election of school committee members, and other topics. Participation in the research and evaluation will be a unique opportunity for

Concert and Fireworks Display

The University of Massachusetts Dartmouth will again be the setting for an Independence Day Pops Concert and Fireworks Display on Sunday, July 2. The New Bedford Symphony Orchestra's performance of the "1812 Overture," complete with musket fire and fireworks display, will conclude an evening of popular and classical music as well as performances by the Colonial Navy of Massachusetts and the Kekeli West African Dancers.

The evening's entertainment — all free — is expected to bring more than 20,000 to the UMass Dartmouth Campus. Picnic suppers, lawn chairs and blankets will make for comfort, as will arriving for best seating. FleetBoston and the Town of Dartmouth sponsor the university's sixth annual Independence Day Concert

If your bank accounts have been switched to another bank... Let's talk.

We'll be open every night in Mattapoisett until 7:00 pm from June 19 - 23 and on Saturday June 24 from 8:30 am - 12 pm to welcome new customers to our bank.

You'll find that we offer all of the services big banks offer, like commercial lending, trust services, consumer banking and mortgages, plus innovative technology like twenty-four hour Internet, PC and telephone banking.

What we don't have is a lot of shareholders who will be making decisions that impact your day to day banking relationship with us. That's because we are part of a mutual holding company, which means we can't be bought out in some quick stock transaction.

If you are tired of the name changes, fee increases and general turmoil brought about by mergers and acquisitions, we invite you to experience the difference Plymouth Savings Bank can make. Try our Check Plus Account: maintain a $100 balance and you won't pay any monthly fees or per check charges. That's just one of the ways we can save you money on your banking relationship.

Stop by our Mattapoisett branch at 29 County Road, or visit us on the web at www.plymouthsavings.com to learn more.

a comprehensive psychotherapy practice

Your adolescent... Are you concerned?

We recognize that for many students and parents, the transition from the structure of the school year to the freedom of summer can be a stressful one. Structure helps ease anxiety and for some adolescents, connecting with others in a positive group experience can be extremely helpful. For parents, it is a comfort to know that when their teen is out of school, there is still weekly contact with a professional. We offer an opportunity for ongoing assessment during the months when young people are at risk because of the unstructured nature of the season.

LYME DISEASE

My dog gets lots of ticks. Will he get Lyme disease?

Lyme disease is caused by a bacteria and is transmitted by ticks. Unfortunately, Lyme disease is common in this area.

What signs will my dog show?

The most common sign associated with Lyme disease is lameness, often associated with fever. Many dogs show signs, while others are intermittently lame.

Is Lyme disease preventable or treatable?

Yes to both. Vaccines are available for dogs that are fairly effective in preventing Lyme disease. If your dog gets Lyme disease, it can usually be cured by treatment with antibiotics.

firing of the Fort Phoenix cannons, and maybe even win a great prize package at this year's American History Costume Parade, sponsored by the Fairhaven Office of Tourism on Tuesday, July 4 at 9:30 am. Adults and children are invited to dress as their favorite character from any period of American history to walk from Cushman Park to Fort Phoenix. A lot of creativity has gone into the costumes seen during the previous three years, according to Fairhaven Tourism Director Christopher J. Richard.

"We have seen characters such as Tom Sawyer, Johnny Appleseed, Miss Liberty, flappers, Indian maidens, Ben Franklin, characters from Little House on the Prairie, a Hawaiian king, Civil War soldiers, everything you can think of, really," Mr. Richard said. "With 380 years since the Pilgrims arrived, there are almost endless possibilities for costumes, from John Alden and Priscilla Mullens to the Brady Bunch."

The parade will form between 9:00 am and 9:30 am at the Spring Street entrance of Cushman Park. At that time, everyone dressed in costume will be given a ticket for the prize drawing to be held at the fort.

The adult prize is a "Food for a Day in Fairhaven" package consisting of breakfast for two at the Courtyard Restaurant, lunch for two at Pumpnickels, and dinner for two at the Fairhaven Chowder House. The children's prize is a "Fun in Fairhaven" package including prize certificates good at Loony Toonz, Dorothy Cox's Chocolates and Ice Cream Parlor, Naughty Dawgs, and Carousel Skating Center. All of the prizes have been donated by the above-named businesses. The prize tickets will be drawn at random. (Members of the Fairhaven Tourism Committee and their immediate families are not eligible for prizes.)

When the parade of costumed marchers arrives at Fort Phoenix an Independence Day program will be held.

Sippican School would like to thank both Neponset Valley Construction and Strekalovsky and Hoit Architects for their generous donations to this effort. Not only are both of these organizations working diligently to provide a beautiful, new renovated school, but they have contributed to the academic life of students as well. Thank you, Ed Sciaba and Roger Hoit.

Progress on the building is going very well. When you travel up or down Main Street, you can see the yellow brick walls. The brick will start being visible this week in front of the building. The new univents for classrooms arrived on site this week and will be installed soon.

The Florence Eastman Post 280 American Legion and the Mattapoisett Police Brotherhood will hold their Annual Clambake on Sunday, July 23 at 1:30 pm at the Holy Ghost Grounds on Park Street. Tickets can be purchased by calling John DeCosta (758-2310), Mike Lamoureux (758-3731), Steve Hanna (758-2328), or Evelyn Pursley (758-3329), or from any member of the Mattapoisett Police Brotherhood.

Tri-Town Phone Book

The 2000-2001 edition of the League of Women Voters' Phone Book for Marion, Mattapoisett and Rochester ("The Blue Book") will soon be at the Post Office awaiting delivery to nearly 8,000 postal patrons in the three towns. Personal addressed copies should be delivered to advertisers by June 15. Please call 295-1042 if your book doesn't arrive, or if you have any questions, complaints, or suggestions. After the delivery date, a few copies will be available from the Post Office in the three towns for a very short while and then, while they last, at The Bookstall in Marion, Blossoms in Mattapoisett, and Movies and More in Rochester.

Again this year, through the kindness of The Wanderer, the classified listings will automatically be on the Internet thereby giving them even wider exposure. Also again this year, the League was able to make grants to five Old Rochester Regional School System educators who submitted proposals. They can fund these grants because of the Phone Book and local advertiser participation over the years.

School Committee Meetings

The following is a schedule of School Committee meetings for the month of June. All meetings are slated to begin at 7:30 pm.

- Thursday, June 15 - Rochester School Committee at Memorial School.
- Tuesday, June 20 - ORR District School Committee at ORR High School.

SouthCoast region. The first is the internationally-acclaimed wines of Westport Rivers Vineyard and Winery. The others include the new High Hill Vineyard and Winery in Dartmouth, along with Sakonnet and Greenvale from Rhode Island. Their locally-produced wines will be featured with other fine wines from around the world at The Grand Tasting. Along with sampling 300 wines, festival attendees will see new and original artwork by 60 artists from all over the country.

According to Carol Russell, Vice President of Westport Rivers Vineyard and Winery, the SouthCoast is an emerging wine growing region, like Sonoma, California was 20 years ago. And the long, cool growing season is perfect for the creation of premium estate white wines and "Champagne." Thirty years ago, Bob Russell started experimenting with wine-making and researched how to grow the classical European vines in this area.

The Russell family brought an historic dairy farm in Westport, MA in 1982 and planted 40 acres planning to make "Champagne." Today, with 80 acres of grapes on their 200-acre historic family farm, Westport Rivers is the largest vineyard in New England. They are leading the way for the successful growing of vinifera in this cool, coastal climate. They also are leading the way for a premium sparkling wine region. Now they have received the ultimate honor with their Brut Cuvee being served at The White House on several occasions!

While the Russell Family could have started their vineyard anywhere in the world, they chose to remain in New England. "We had lived here for 25 years and when we plant roots, we plant them deep, just like a grapevine," Russell said. "And we wanted a supportive farming community, like Westport, where we knew we could get the tractor fixed." Their dream is to see this area, which Bob named "The Heritage Farm Coast," known as Farm, Fish, Food and Wine Region with locally-grown produce, milk, cheeses and wines coupled with the bounty from the sea. When you have these great natural resources, the chefs follow and open great restaurants like The Back Eddy in Westport, Webster Hall in Wareham, Margaret's in Fairhaven, and Bridge Street Cafe in Padanaram.

"We love New England for its intimate, touchable landscape, its people and its heritage," Russell said. "We all need to preserve this ... as well as our local agriculture, in order to create sustainable communities for our children."

The Marion Wine and Arts Festival is a one-day cultural event, which opens at 11:00 am and closes at 7:00 pm. The Grand Tasting is from 2:00 pm to 6:00 pm. Four beautiful tents on Island Wharf overlooking Sippican Harbor will protect all the outdoor art exhibits with several artists exhibiting in the Music Hall. It will be a spectacular setting for an art exhibition and fine-wine tasting.

The ticket price for the festival is $45. For those just wishing to come and view the art exhibits and not partake of The Grand Tasting, the ticket price is $10. The Zeiterion Theatre in New Bedford will be the exclusive seller of festival tickets. The Zeiterion Box Office number is (508) 994-2900. The Box Office hours are Tuesday through Friday, 10:00 am to 5:00 pm, and Saturday from 10:00 am to 3:00 pm. A significant portion of the proceeds from the Marion Wine and Arts Festival will be donated to the Zeiterion Theatre for theatrical upgrades.

The First Presenting Sponsor of The Marion Wine and Arts Festival is Plymouth Savings Bank. Additional Presenting Sponsors include Westport Rivers Vineyard and Winery; Meg Roberts, who owns a Painted Peace in Mattapoisett; and Spirits, a retailer of fine wines in Marion Village.

MOVIE REVIEW

Carjack Club

BY ROB GONSALVES
local@wanderer.com

■ Gone in 60 Seconds. Starring Nicolas Cage and Angelina Jolie. Directed by Dominic Sena. Running time: 119 minutes. MPAA rating: PG-13. At Cinema 12 at the North Dartmouth Mall and Flagship Cinemas in New Bedford.

Both the ad campaign and the opening credits for Gone in 60 Seconds come on very hip, very techno, very 2000. The film itself, though, is comfortably cheesy — a real beer-and-pizza movie. In spirit, I imagine it's close to the original Gone in 60 Seconds (which I haven't seen), a 1974 drive-in flick considered a cult classic by B-movie buffs. The new film gives us reasonably likable characters, gives them a clearly-defined conflict, and gets out of the way as they go about resolving it. There's not one scrap of art in Gone in 60 Seconds, but there's no flab either; in its pedal-to-the-metal professionalism, it's almost a lowbrow version of Ronin.

Perhaps only in recent years could two Oscar winners (Nicolas Cage and Angelina Jolie) appear, without apparent irony or disdain, in a megabudget action movie from producer Jerry Bruckheimer (Con Air, Armageddon). Or perhaps not — perhaps this film is a '70s throwback in more ways than one: remember the Oscar winners peppered throughout The Swarm and The Poseidon Adventure? (Both were produced by Irwin Allen, the Jerry Bruckheimer of the '70s.) In any event, Cage and Jolie seem to be having fun, and Jolie in particular likes to tease her generally bland lines as if playing with chewing gum. She's a whiz at keeping herself amused; I have a feeling she'll be a wild card in movies for years to come.

Cage is in penitent-nice-guy mode as Randall "Memphis" Raines, a former car thief who's been out of the racket eight years. Memphis is happy enough working in a garage and supervising a kiddie race track, but just when he thought he was out, they pull him back in. It seems his kid brother Kip (Giovanni Ribisi, looking like Shaggy), himself a budding car thief, has gotten in hot water with a vicious ganglord known as "the Carpenter." This criminal mastermind is given such a dread-ridden build-up that part of the movie's oddball charm is that he turns out to be Christopher Eccleston, who could possibly frighten a cup of tea, if that.

The Carpenter (screenwriter Scott Rosenberg does love these baroque names for gangsters) offers Memphis a deal: Steal and deliver 50 fancy cars, and Kip can stay among the breathing. So Memphis swiftly puts together a crew, including his old flame Sway (Jolie), his mentor Otto (Robert Duvall), old friend Donny (the scene-stealing Chi McBride), and the wordless Sphinx (Vinnie Jones). The cars that have been targeted for theft are all given female names, and the many heist scenes have the ardent, furtive quality of romance; Memphis slips into a beauty, hot-wires her, and revs her up. When Sway gets into the action, it's almost a Sapphic love scene.

Writing about An Officer and a Gentleman, Pauline Kael called it "crap, but it's crap on a motorcycle." Well, Gone in 60 Seconds is crap in a Shelby Mustang GT 500. The movie was directed by Dominic Sena, an MTV veteran whose only previous film was 1993's Kalifornia, a sun-bleached serial-killer thriller with David Duchovny and Brad Pitt; the only link I can find between the two films is that they're both a lot better than they had to be. Partly it's thanks to Scott Rosenberg, the quirky scripter (Things to Do in Denver When You're Dead) who has worked with Bruckheimer before (Con Air and, uncredited, Armageddon). Here, Rosenberg finds the right balance between action-propelled narrative and odd touches, such as a comic-relief cop duo (determined Delroy Lindo and goofy Timothy Olyphant). The movie also pauses to let a minor character sing the praises of an unprintable technique known as "the Stranger"; I respect a film that stops to smell the sleaze.

In all, this is the first Bruckheimer production I've enjoyed. I only regret a little too much camera jitter in the car-chase scenes, which are otherwise staged with a tongue-in-cheek taste for the ridiculous (Memphis gets behind the wheel of that Shelby Mustang and makes her defy gravity, physics, and Delroy Lindo). What amazes me is that many critics are praising the bloated Mission: Impossible 2 while dumping on this light-headed, light-hearted fare, as if punishing Bruckheimer for past cinematic sins. Maybe Bruckheimer hasn't quite reformed, unlike Memphis, but Gone in 60 Seconds at least shows that he can make entertaining trash, instead of the usual boring trash.

Rochester Millennium Celebration

Remember what an old-fashioned country fair was like, with animals, games, crafts, exhibits, and a down-home atmosphere? Well, the Rochester Millennium Celebration Committee is planning one for August 19 and they're looking for people who have something they'd like to show off. Do you have animals you've raised? Do you have a skill or a craft or a talent you'd like to demonstrate? How about a collection you're proud of?

The Millennium Committee would love to talk to you if you raise, grow, manufacture, collect, or do anything you think others might be interested in. They're thinking "out of the box" with this one — it's not just another flea market or craft sale. They want you to perform your talent or demonstrate your skill ... they want you to tell them about your animals or collection.

They know you're out there ... and you've been wanting to show off what you can do or what you have,

DEPRECIATION VS APPRECIATION

If you want to play the waiting game when buying a big-ticket item like a car or a home, there is a big difference. If you cannot afford that $10,000 car today, you can wait five years and purchase that very same car for $5,000. That's because cars and almost everything else you buy (with the notable exception of homes) DEPRECIATE in value over the years.

If you are waiting to buy a particular home, in five years, it will probably cost you a great deal more than it is selling for now. That is because homes APPRECI-ATE in value over the years.

The only way to fight this price inflation syndrome is to join it. If there is no way you can come up with the money for the ultimate home of your choice, look for a home at a price you CAN afford.

It's a matter of timing. Since the value of your home will probably increase faster than your savings account, trading up to a better home will be easier the second time around. Why not call us. We can help!

This Week's Horoscope

by Linda Black

Aries (March 21-April 19). Cram information into your brain, especially about money. If you're smart, you might be able to start traveling soon.

Taurus (April 20-May 20). Resolving financial issues with a partner will be easier than usual, so bring the subject up.

Gemini (May 21-June 21). Pay attention to other people. Take care of them, and they'll take care of you. The game's intense.

Cancer (June 22-July 22). Schedule a private conversation with your sweetheart. The two of you need to resolve a few issues. You should stop talking and start taking action.

Leo (July 23-Aug. 22). You're doing well with groups of people, and your attention seems to be focused on a domestic issue.

Virgo (Aug. 23-Sept. 22). Do some reading and planning. Outline the whole year if you really want to win. Take care of personal matters or a little problem could become a big one.

Libra (Sept. 23-Oct. 23). Hurry up and enjoy yourself. You can work a shrewd deal if you hold out for what you want.

Scorpio (Oct. 24-Nov. 21). You're decisive and powerful, but don't get into a conflict. The other side is pretty strong, too, so a compromise is a better idea.

Sagittarius (Nov. 22-Dec. 21). You're learning how to work well with others, and that might be upsetting for an independent type like yourself.

Capricorn (Dec. 22-Jan. 19). Take care of others on purpose. Look for ways to get others to help, too. Push hard to get the job done.

Aquarius (Jan. 20-Feb 18). Set up your career to support your relationship. You can talk an older person into doing what works for you. Schedule meetings.

Pisces (Feb. 19-March 20). Making big decisions should be easier than usual. A person from far away can help you with your long-range planning.

If You're Having a Birthday This Week: You'll get to learn about service. Don't worry; it'll be good for your self-esteem. Work takes precedence. You could have the goal you're after, so don't slack off!

Fairhaven Mooring Registrations

If you own a recreational boat mooring in the Town of Fairhaven, you need to register it with the town's Harbormaster Department. There is no fee to register and mooring applications can be obtained at the Selectmen's office in the Fairhaven Town Hall. Boat owners, however, do not have to purchase a $10 boat sticker if they place a boat on the mooring.

Most moorings are concentrated in six areas around town. This includes areas east of Sconticut Neck in Little Bay, Seaview Avenue Boat Ramp, West Island, and in New Bedford/Fairhaven's inner harbor off Fort Street, Crow Island and north of the Route 6 Bridge. Once the mooring application is processed, mooring owners will be supplied with an annual plastic yellow numbered tag to be placed on the mooring buoy.

"We have a particularly difficult job in attempting to identify the owners of some old moorings off the Coast Guard Auxiliary Docks near Crow Island," said Harbormaster Gary Golas, CHM. "I have been working closely with John Simpson, Director of the New Bedford Harbor Development Commission in finding those mooring owners, however we still have some moorings unidentified and unregistered on both the Fairhaven and New Bedford sides of the boundary line." If owners don't come forward, they may lose their mooring permit and the mooring will be removed by the Harbormaster's

COOKIN' GOOD

Tomato-kissed Chicken

By Deanna Gugel

4 chicken breasts
1/2 cup vinaigrette
1/2 cup Italian dressing (not creamy)
1/2 cup white wine
3 tomatoes
6 green onions
1/4 green pepper
poultry seasoning
fresh cilantro
freshly ground black pepper

In a large cruet or a small blender container designed for beverages, combine the Italian dressing, vinaigrette and the white wine. Shake briskly until the ingredients are combined. Set aside. Clean the tomatoes, green pepper, green onion and cilantro and drain. Dice all the fresh produce except for the tomatoes into small pieces. Chop the tomatoes into quarter-inch square pieces. Combine all the fresh produce together in a large measuring cup that holds at least 4 cups of liquid, turning gently so that you don't damage the tomatoes too much. Remove the skins from the chicken breasts and sprinkle seasoning onto the poultry. Grill chicken breasts. When the chicken has cooked until it is just barely pink near the bones, remove it from the grill and set it in a skillet. Warm the skillet on medium heat, adding the vinaigrette almost immediately, and grinding black pepper lightly over the meat, basting the poultry often to keep it from drying out. After the vinaigrette has warmed throughout and the chicken breasts have finished cooking, add the tomatoes, green onions, green pepper and cilantro and heat until all ingredients are warmed. Remove the skillet from the stovetop and set the chicken on a serving dish, garnished with your favorite rice. Spoon the vinaigrette sauce and present attractively over top.

The Harbormaster added that he is making tremendous progress at identifying, databasing, and charting most moorings in town waters. "For the first time ever, the Harbormaster's Office now has large-scale reference charts in Town Hall to locate and identify all mooring locations as well as new potential mooring field locations," said Mr. Golas. This effort was aided by a grant from the Massachusetts Coastal Zone Management office last season.

2 to 14 can register for "Explore With Reading," the summer reading program at the Mattapoisett Public Library. Kids, their families, and caregivers will be invited to participate in programs and activities that explore the past, other cultures, nature and their environment. Readers will receive reading certificates, bookmarks, game sheets, and other reading incentives as they participate.

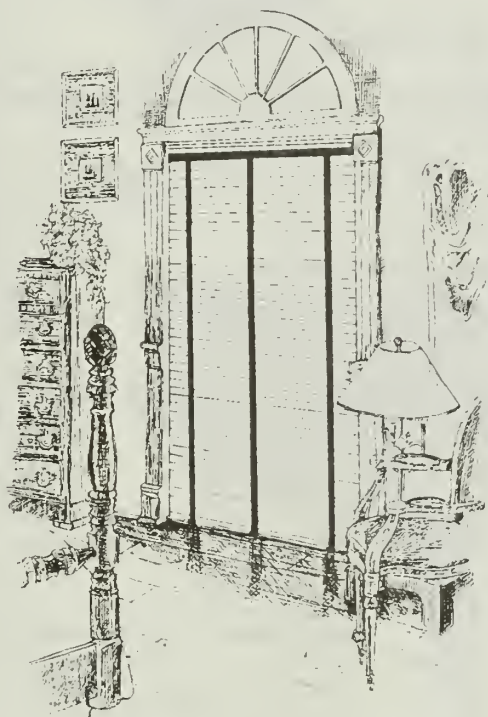

Children who read during the summer show considerable gains in reading skill. Reading practice is especially important for beginning readers in the primary grades and for reluctant readers. Families reading together provide an important reading role model. The goal of the summer reading program is to encourage children and their families to visit the library, read throughout the summer, and most of all, have fun!

Dear God,

Wasn't it so nice that all those people came to our Bike-A-Thon to help us? You sure knew what you were doing when you sent Andy & Danny from Chace Canopy--it sure is awesome that every year they help us with all of our tent and stuff. Did you see Tremblay's Bus, Brownell's, Larry's Trophy, Cardoza's Concrete, EMS of New Bedford, our friends from Davidsons, Cape Cod Chips, Lesco Ocean Spray, McDonald's, Shaw's and Crystal Ice that brought all the things for our cookout? They sure know how to throw a party. We all had our tee-shirts on that Neil at Screenworks does for us....we really like him, don't you Lord? Our friend Larry from UPS was selling popcorn from the UPS truck. I told everybody that he was the same friend who got UPS to buy a new van for us kids at Hearts & Hands. It sure is really nice God case now we can go places together when we're not in the hospital.

God, how did you like the float that the kids from New Bedford Voke and the families made? You must have been happy when you saw their sign, "No Tears Past Heaven's Gate"....I bet Derek and Jason, that you brought home, were smiling to see that! You know, God, sometimes it's awfully hard not being able to see them and play with them. That's why it's so nice that you gave us Hearts & Hands. But gee, God, they sure do hug a lot!

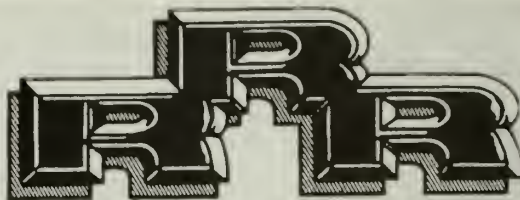

Well I know you must be real busy answering everybody's prayers but could you send Mary and all those angels in those blue uniforms a little extra.....they are always so nice to us kids.

It's been a tough year for us hasn't it Lord.....but it sure is nice to know that you've never let us down!

Your Kids at Hearts & Hands

P.S. Could you ask Dad to increase our allowance?
